

Winter Camp Future Society
Annual Meeting
December 31, 2012

Attendance: Mark Bollman-->, Keith King, Kristie Donohue, Jeff Rand, Steve Donohue, Gabriel Church, Ethan Rein, Doug Wilson

Meeting was called to order at 2.12 WCST

- Class of XL: It was agreed to accept members through January 31, 2013. Youth members must pay the youth price for Winter Camp XX ($30.30) and adult members pay the adult price ($36.36).
- Mix Fix: Ethan Rein, Zach Stockwell, and Joe Warren participated in the D-A Mix Fix. Food was provided by D-A to the volunteers. Ethan, Zach, and Joe cleared the stairs around BC cabin and on the dam hill.
- Future Investments and Improvements: The hot water heater is working well. Steve Donohue suggested that future investments be made in our kitchen equipment. The group agreed to review needs during clean up. Cookie Sheets and 13x9 pans were suggested as needing replacement.
- Beds: Nearly all beds were full at Beaver Creek and Clearwater Cabins. We agreed that keeping the bunks full rather than expanding to High Point Cabin is good for the program. Winter Camp visitors John Howey, Dave Milon, and Geoff Brown slept at High Point Cabin on December 27 and 28. We agreed to include it in our clean up routine before leaving camp.
- Major Events: There was no major thematic event for this Winter Camp.
- Food: The food has been well received.
- Favor for Winter Camp XL. We want to have some kind of giveaway for Winter Camp XL. Hats were discussed as a possibility.
- Participation Award: Some youth seem interested, but it hasn't been a high priority among the advisers. Steve Donohue suggested we appoint an adult whose responsibility it is to encourage the award throughout the weekette.
- Winter Camp University: This program has not seen much activity in recent years. Like the participation award, it requires adviser commitment.
- Attic Storage: At Winter Camp XXXV, we left a majority of the kitchen equipment in the attic of Beaver Creek Cabin. The equipment does not appear to have been disturbed and we decided to use it again. Doug Wilson and Steve Donohue agreed that spices ought not be stored at Camp.
- Trading Post: Unit price of $0.75 for candy and soda is working well for camp. We're able to make a small profit and sales are brisk. Pepsi is selling poorly. It was passed out as a free soda during the Casino Snack. Twix bars are selling well.
- Showers: With the Beaver Creek Shower hose permanently closed, Winter Camp's closest shower facility is in Jack Lord Camp. This facility had limited use during the weekette. We agreed to consider a "shower bus" for the youth in the future.
- Camperships: We distributed three camperships and would have been able to provide more. Steve Donohue reported that their availability was communicated well throughout the year.
- Duty Roster: The duty roster was presented for sign up and the labor was not distributed well. Some meals were understaffed, while some campers did not have the opportunity to cook and clean for meals. The patrol method and the assignment method were discussed as possible alternatives.
- Evaluations: We agreed to pass out evaluations before the Conglomerate Lunch. Results of the evaluations can be found at the end of these minutes.
- Relationship to Mahican Chapter: With several chapter officers in attendance and a vocal presence at Chapter meetings, there seems to be good interactions.
- Solvency: With the trading post, we anticipate being close to breaking even on Winter Camp. Because D-A is technically closed during Winter Camp this year, Steve Donohue has been unable to pay for Beaver Creek Cabin.
- Dishes: There is a lack of understanding the dish washing process (leaving the water running, cold water rinsing, etc.) that may require enhanced washing instructions at future Winter Camps. This could be part of the orientation meeting on the first day, which was lacking in information this year.
- XXXVII Leadership: Ryan Warunek appointed himself youth leader. Sean Suehr is also interested in a leadership position. Gabriel Church will serve as Advisor.
- Promotion: Keith King's slide show presented on December 30 may be able to be worked into a promotional slide show for the January 24 Chapter Meeting.
- Program Discussion: We didn't many "get to know each other" activities early in the weekette. Doug Wilson suggested the Hobby Draw may fill that role.
  - Hobby Draw: We agreed it took too long, and that it dragged on in part due to adult involvement. We discussed reworking it so that (1) the hobbies can be more realistic and (2) it moves along faster

Respectfully submitted,

Ethan Rein
WCFS Secretary

Follow Up from Kristie Donohue:

- Kristie discussed shower access with three youth on the way home and indicated they would make use of a “shower bus.”
- Kristie also indicated that there may be interested in some kind of souvenir trading post with Winter Camp items. This will require future discussion.

Winter Camp XXXVI Evaluation Results - The number after a concept is the amount of times it appears on an evaluation. If there is no number, the concept was written once

Favorite Activities:

Commando Stalking (9)
CC Golf (8)
Casino Night (7)
CTO (7)
Time Capsule (4)
Blind Hike (3)
Free time (3)
Hobby Draw (3)
Lanterns (3)
4 way volleyball (2)
Baking (2)
Bow making
Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner
Sleep

Changes that could enhance future activities:

CTO / Stalking / Prohibition - too similar (2)
Plow road for CC Golf (2)
Faster Hobby Draw (2)
Change golf to frisbee
CTO - more balloons
Commando chase rather than stalk
More casino games
Shorter Hobby draw
Shorter time capsule hike
Organization meeting - teach about dishes
4 way volley ball near Clearwater

Activities that should be skipped next year

Mentos and Diet Coke (4)
Movie night
Great Wall Banner

Activities that would be fun next year

Cross Country:
    Disc Golf (3), Archery (2), Bowling (2), Kickball,
    Ultimate Frisbee
Chariot Race
Explosives
Flaming Arrows
Handicraft projects
Mask Making
Potato Guns
Pyrotechnics
Sled Races
Team building
Ultimate Frisbee
Shower Bus

Theme for next year:

Vikings (3)
Tom Clancy (2)
Luchadores (2)
Al Capone
Barbarians
Call of Duty
Celts
Classic Monsters
Colonial America
Gladiators
Hollywood
Russia
Space age
Spies

Favorite Meals

Bollmano's Pizza(10)
Turducken (8)
Spaghetti (4)
Chinese Buffet (3)
Meal by number (3)
Electric Lunch (2)
Conglomerate Lunch (2)
Heart Stupid Breakfast(2)
Sandwiches
Grits
Bacon Breakfast
Bakery Snack
Continental breakfast
Carnivorous Lunch

Changes to make to meals:

No beef fizz (2)
Fruit for breakfast
More Bacon
One "Feature" meal
More sides
Don't burn chicken
Better Mexican
Better Bacon Gravy

Meals to skip next year:

Carnivorous Lunch (9)
Turducken (2)
Cold Cuts
Separate Chinese dinner
Spaghetti - no meat sauce
Loaded scrambled eggs

Meals to add next year:

Tacos (2)
All Pie Meal
Aztec Lunch
BBQ
Chicken Pot Pie
Chili
Foil Pack meal
Hamburgers
Ice Cream
Kobe Beef
Lasagna
Meat Waffles
Michigan
Ribs
Squash
Waffles

Other

Better duty roster