

Winter Camp XLIV – COVID-19 Venue Options

A (1) Standard D-bar-A Operation

- Utilize D-bar-A using traditional model, paying attention to restrictions to minimize risk

A (2) Dispersed D-bar-A Operation

- Overnight stays limited to those over 18 or with a parent/guardian
- Families pay extra rental cost for their cabins except for College of Winter Camping in Forester
- Jack Lord as operation center
- Hay pavilion with spread out tables for gatherings and some meals
- Bread baking and meal preparation at individual cabins, except for College of Winter Camping participants
- Individual Jack Lord shower stalls assigned
- Potential lodging:
 - Jack Lord – food take out for campers
 - Dan Beard ($192) – Bollmanos take out
 - James E West ($192)
 - Indianwood ($300)
 - Forester – winter campers
 - Fair Oaks ($288)
 - Clearwater ($144)
 - Beaver Creek ($288)

B (1) Other Camp Facility – Camp Miakonda (near Toledo)

- Scout camp facility on 160 acres
- Could do most of standard program except no ovens
- Baking and oven use – Wilsons have nearby resource
- Koester Cabin ($308) has electrical outlets and bunks for 20
- Oakdale and Washington ($275) have no outlets but each has 32 bunks

B (2) Other Camp Facility - Brighton Recreation Area (state owned)

- Hiking trails & more on 4,947 acres
- Could do most of standard program, except have to cook outside on camp stoves
- Baking and oven use – Horns have nearby resource
- Migizi Cabin ($272) for 4 nights (starting 12/27), has bunks for 20, alternate spelling of name meaning eagle
- 4 smaller cabins ($232 each) have 8 bunks in each cabin

C (1) Personal Property – Rand Cottage (near Lexington)

- Overnight stays limited to those over 18 as non-Scouting stay
- Limited space – about an acre, $\frac{1}{4}$ mile to Lake Huron
- Indoor sleeping for 6 to 8, but could have 3 or 4 tents outside, may include day visitors
- Could do some of standard program, but have a fully functional kitchen

Winter Camp XLIV – Remote Participation

Given that some options may limit participation, particularly for youth. This proposal outlines how these folks could participate in the essential aspects of Winter Camp.

Sunday, December 27, 2020

- Travel to site for dispersed gathering
- Lunch on your own
- Welcome/get acquainted activity
- Four-way volleyball
- Return home
- Mexican dinner prepared at your home
- Home bread baking

Monday, December 28, 2020

- Breakfast on you own
- Snowman building/ice sculpture contest in your yard
- Lunch on your own
- Neighborhood perimeter hike/map making
- Blind caveman dinner at your home
- Overnight outside in your yard

Tuesday, December 29, 2020

- Breakfast competition
- Service project from home
- Lunch on your own
- Remote gamefest
- Puzzle building competition
- Homemade pizza
- Movie

Wednesday, December 30, 2020

- Breakfast on you own
- Personal yard putting course
- Casino lunch
- Remote casino games/trivia contest
- Travel to D-bar-A
- Dinner on your own
- Time capsule ceremony
- Return home

Thursday, December 31, 2020

- Jackpot Grits breakfast at home
- Remote O-A history/sensory experience
- Conglomerate lunch competition

Updated: 5/9/20